Regarding: Donna Bolt's letter about Natalie P. Cochran's published book on 11/13/23

To The Honorable Judges:

My name is Daphne Jessup, mother of Natalie Cochran. I am writing in response to the letter written by Donna Bolt concerning Natalie and Nicole Cochran's book, Dandelion Ministry Group. Since my daughter, Natalie, has been incarcerated, God has used her to reach other inmates with the gospel. The first unit she was assigned to had a hundred and twenty women. Fifty-nine of the women eventually filled her weekly Bible study group. I was able to send Bible study books, journals, and Bibles to the group. The total of books I have sent has reached to over 350. I have sent 46 of the devotional books that Natalie and her daughter, Nicole, have written to SFF Hazleton prison, and also to the federal camp in Lexington, KY. Friends have purchased 30 books to use in a jail ministry in Tennessee. I'm the one who got the book published and set up a bank account for the Dandelion Ministry Group with my personal funds. I am attaching my bank statement for this account. We have sold 100 books at this time through Amazon. Amazon charges to print the book and directly deposits profits in to the ministry bank account. I wish to assure you, Natalie nor Nicole will never profit from this book. All proceeds will be used to get the Dandelion Ministry Book into other prison ministries.

I assure you that the letter you received from Donna Bolt about Natalie cheating the system by selling this book is completely untrue. Thank you for your time in reading my letter with my concerns about this matter.

Respectfully,

Daphne Jessup
